

Difference Differently

Beliefs, Then and Now

Years 7/8 History

Find your own reference material and research the period and culture that your client belongs to by answering the following questions. Also record the reference details for the information you find.

What language/s is spoken?

What do they wear?

What religious beliefs do they have?

What cultural practices such as music, art, and dance do they enjoy?

What buildings or structures do they use?

What are the political structures in their society, for example, who makes decisions and holds power?

What are the social structures in their society, for example, how are different groups treated, including males and females?